

Curriculum Map

Subject: Philosophy, Religion and Ethics (PRE)

The study of Philosophy, Religion and Ethics (PRE) at Avanti Grange will enable pupils to live full and successful lives in a multi-religious, multi-secular world. Students will acquire accurate and rich knowledge of religious and non-religious world views, philosophical and cultural traditions, and engage critically with these. They will gain a deepening understanding of key concepts in philosophy, theology and social sciences, engage in intellectual challenge and develop their personal knowledge of their own views and spirituality.

Year Group	Autumn Half Term 1	Autumn Half Term 2	Spring Half Term 1	Spring Half Term 2	Summer Half Term 1	Summer Half Term 2
Key Stage 3
7	Introduction to PRE: worldviews What is a love of wisdom? (Philosophy)	What is knowledge? (Philosophy) What do Abrahamic faith stories reveal about believing in God? (Theology)	What do Abrahamic faith stories reveal about God? (Theology)	Why is Judaism the way it is today? (History and social sciences)	What do creation stories reveal about being human? (Social sciences)	How logical are explanations for the existence of the universe? (Philosophy) Why were philosophers interested in the idea of God? (Philosophy)
8	Why are philosophers still interested in the idea of God? (Philosophy)	Why is Christianity the way it is? (History and social sciences)	Is religion a conservative force? (Social sciences)	Is religion a force for social change? (Social sciences)	How have philosophers tried to explain the self and the soul? (Philosophy and theology)	Why is Islam the way it is? (History and social sciences)
9	What influences different worldviews about animals? (Social sciences and theology) Are all animals equal? (Philosophy)	Ethics: what does it mean to be good and how do we know? (Philosophy)	Ethics (continued) What is religion? (Social science)	What is religion? (continued)	Why are the dharmic traditions so diverse? (Theology; social science)	Why are the Abrahamic faiths so diverse? (Theology; social science)

